REPORT

Date June 22, 1939.

Subject The China Hellenic Lines, Limited.

Made by D.S. Lockwood.

Forwarded by W. Legan, S.C.I.

On June 17, 1939, a notice was published in the North China Daily News to the effect that Mr. E. KERMODE and Mr. N.N. MALINOVSKY had been appointed Manager and Assistant Manager of the China Hellenic Lines, Limited, Messageries Maritimes Building, No.9 Quai France. Both of the above mentioned persons were former employees of the Moller Associated Companies.

During the course of an interview with Mr. J.W. CREIGHTON, H.B.M. acting Shipping Consul, it was ascertained that the founders of the China Hellenic Lines, Ltd., had submitted an application to be registered under the Hongkong ordinances. In view of the fact that all conditions required under the China "Orders in Council" had been complied with the request was granted. The following data is recorded in the "register of shares" return.

Capital C.$50,000. Shares C.$10.- each.
